

September 10, 2006

Attention Ryan Lanz, Campaign Finance Analyst:

This is in response to your recent letter dated August 18, 2006 for the July Quarterly Report (4/1/06-6/30/06). Per your request, the committee is providing the following explanation to further clarify how the administrative functions of the committee are handled.

The committee has no full-time or part-time employees or volunteers that work directly with the PAC on administrative duties. Instead the committee pays various consultants that assist in handling the administrative duties (Renee Kizziar) and FEC reporting duties (Lockart, Atchley & Associates).

When the committee conducts its fundraising activities, the committee pays a fundraising consultant (Maianne Sahl).

All administrative expenses for the committee have been reported on the report.
